

How to Care for Me

(and make our relationship last!)

Let's keep things comfy, supportive, and fabulous for as long as possible. Follow my care tips, and we'll stay a perfect match:

Wash Me Gently

Handwash me in cool water with a gentle detergent. Machines? Not my vibe—they're too rough on my delicate details!

Let Me Air Dry

Skip the dryer, please! I love a good hangout session. Lay me flat or hang me by the center gore (not the straps!) to keep my shape.

Say No to Bleach!

I'm not a fan of bleach—it makes me sad and weakens my fabric.

Rotation is Key

Give me a day off! Rotating your bras lets me bounce back and stay in top shape.

Let's Make it Last

Store me flat or in a drawer, not crushed, to keep me feeling my best.

Washing Bags: Close, But Not Quite

While they help a little, washing bags can't save me from the machine's wear and tear. Stick with handwashing to keep me at my best.

Remember: A little care goes a long way in our relationship. Treat me right, and I'll keep you feeling fabulous!
